President’s Message

Michael J. Hoffman, Interim AVCP President/CEO

Waqaa and welcome everyone to the 2016 AVCP Annual Convention. This year’s convention theme is, Working together to achieve positive change for a stronger tomorrow through unity. 2016 has been a year full of significant positive changes for the Association of Village Council Presidents. Change is not always easy, but the changes were necessary in order to make this a much stronger organization for all of us, our children and our grandchildren. As an organization we have taken a good look in the mirror to identify our strengths and weaknesses and made the necessary changes we needed to make. What we see now is an organization that is ready for any task presented to it.

Everyone here at AVCP has worked hard this past year, harder than we have ever worked before. Now that the Annual Convention is underway, it will be ten-months into our quality improvement process. The staff, the directors, and the Executive Board have been embracing these changes. These changes make us proud, because we all see that they are improving AVCP.

Strong leadership is essential to the successful operation of an organization as large and complex as AVCP. The Executive Board realized the critical need for a smooth leadership transition. They began the process of recruiting and hiring a person who has the experience and training to run a large nonprofit organization. It will allow the Executive Board to monitor the transition and to ensure we continue moving in the direction of the quality improvement process, which is in the direction of transparency.

Our administration has worked very closely with the Executive Board, and we are taking the Board’s lead on the direction of AVCP. The Executive Board has done an outstanding job of making the hard decisions. They have met twice as often as past boards, and each meeting has lasted twice as long. They have invested hundreds of hours of time learning about AVCP, the complex web of programs and services we provide, the regulations and laws that AVCP must abide by. They have created a new governing structure, working in committees, greatly improving the quality of communications between administration, the staff, and the Executive Board.
AVCP has worked very closely with the grantors throughout this past year, especially with the announcement of re-audit. Making sure we have a good working relationship with our grantors is essential to maintaining and increasing our ability to provide services in this region.

As I have now said many times, AVCP was a victim of its own success. We grew so fast the past 8-10 years. We discovered that the development of administration did not keep pace with that growth. We were running 21st century programs without the updated administrative procedures and staff needed to properly oversee those programs.

Improving the oversight of grants and compliance was the number one focus for administration and all the departments. We have built up our Finance Department’s capacity to fully meet grants and compliance requirements by re-organizing the department and hiring a director.

This nature of quality improvement is not something that changes overnight. It is going to take time. We have done multiple trainings, and implemented weekly meeting schedules, as examples of changing the way AVCP does business on a daily basis. These changes have directly impacted how we work as communication has improved at all levels within the organization. We will continue to build the infrastructure of AVCP by enhancing both corporate and departmental policies and procedures in the coming year. AVCP’s Quality Improvement Process has helped the organization adjust to changing times. AVCP has grown many times over and the new processes of handling day to day operations are allowing us to better administer programs and the people that we serve.

Despite all the things we are doing in the background, AVCP is still delivering services to the region. We are not just maintaining services but our goal, and all the efforts of this past year has been to improve and expand services and service delivery. Tribal Justice through our Tiwahe Demonstration Project, Healthy Families and Tribal Workforce Development through TANF, are all programs that are new and/or have experienced enormous growth in this past year.

AVCP’s mission is to provide human development, social services and other culturally relevant programs for our people, through a working partnership with member villages in the Yukon-Kuskokwim Delta. In August, the Executive Board of Directors directed administration to meet with as many tribes and units to listen to the issues that they presented. During the last few months, I had the opportunity to meet with the regional leaders, our Tribal Councils, and Tribal Members. Those meetings were to help prepare our tribes for the 2016 convention. We wanted to gather your input and hear what you had to say. Face to face. All of the wisdom and direction we have received from the villages and meetings with the tribes has been overwhelmingly positive for AVCP. One of the main messages I heard from all over our region is that we need to work towards unity through better communication. We heard you loud and clear, and have pledged to concentrate on improving this in the year to come.

AVCP is at a pivotal turning point in its history. With 52 years under our belt, AVCP will continue to be the voice of the people of the Yukon Kuskokwim Delta. I have no doubt that AVCP will continue to work to improve the quality of life for our people. But in order to grow stronger we must work to build each other up, through respect, honesty, transparency and unity because that is what we must strive for. This has been an incredible opportunity for me, and I am so grateful that I had the chance to lead this amazing organization.

Michael J. Hoffman, Interim President/CEO
Cultural & Environmental Sciences

Steven R. Street, Director/Archaeologist

Specialists in historic preservation, oral history and environmental science provide technical expertise to the AVCP Department of Realty, 56 member Tribal governments, and Native communities throughout the Yukon-Kuskokwim Delta region. The department assures that all real estate transactions completed by AVCP comply with the National Historic Preservation Act (NHPA), the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) and the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA), among other federal statutes. We assist member Tribal governments with their environmental projects, such as backhauling of solid and hazardous wastes, and provide database administration and geospatial information systems (GIS) support to the Department of Realty and various cultural heritage projects.

Accomplishments in 2015/2016:

Environmental section:

• Facilitated backhauling of over 15,000 lbs. of lead acid batteries out of the region
• Staged and backhauled approximately 4,500 lbs. of E-waste from Tuluksak, Akiak and Napakiak

Historic Preservation section:

• There was a two-fold increase in the number of Advertised Sale requests from the Realty Department this last year. This is a disturbing trend, indicating a significant increase in the number of Native landowners interested in selling their allotments. We barely kept pace with these requests though we do not have sufficient staff to carefully evaluate the potential effects of these sales.
• There were significantly more reports of important historic and archaeological sites threatened by shoreline and coastal erosion. We engaged with the Alaska State Historic Preservation Officer (SHPO) and the Office of History and Archaeology (OHA) to increase the political will to do something about this throughout Alaska. The prognosis is not good.

ANCSA Oral History section:

• The ANCSA Oral Historian revised, printed and bound copies of all the completed tape transcriptions to date.

Goals for 2016/2017:

• EPA will cease funding the backhauling of solid waste during 2017. We need to build more successful collaborations among Tribal governments, federal and state agencies, municipalities, and private businesses to make backhauling a priority. The State of Alaska needs to take the lead.
• Alaskan Tribal governments may choose to pursue new opportunities to move their land from “Fee-to-Trust.” This will require the BIA to change the way it administers Native land in Alaska. The implications for management of cultural and natural resources are overwhelming and we are not prepared. Both the AVCP Department of Realty and Cultural and Environmental Sciences are currently educating ourselves about these potential changes.

Family Service Center

Laurinda (Lauri) Weston-O’Brien, Director

Program Overview: The Vision of the Family Service Center is to create a comprehensive approach which will create an effective, efficient and coordinated service delivery model to improve access to family and social service programs. Our goal is to move from decentralized silos with limited communication to coordination of systems that is effective, efficient and organized. The Vision was shared with the AVCP Executive Board and a Resolution was passed in August 2015 in support of participation in the Tiwahe which created organizational commitment.

Tiwahe (ti-wah-hay) means Family in the Lakota Indian language and is a 5 year national demonstration project by the Bureau of Indian Affairs. In late 2015 AVCP was 1 of 4 tribal entities chosen to participate throughout the whole nation. Departments within the Family Service Center are Education Employment and Training & Child Care, Head Start, ICWA, TANF, Tribal Justice, Social Services, Vocational Rehabilitation and Healthy Families. Please note their accomplishments in this Annual Report. The Family Service Center works in tandem with the Resource Center.

Accomplishments in 2015/2016: The Family Service Center Directors have been meeting regularly on a weekly basis to collaborate and plan as a team. A Family Service Center Director was hired in early 2016 and was initially responsible for coordination of quality improvement training for AVCP. The first training was on the OMB Supercircular which was held for Executive Board Members, Administration, Directors and key staff in February of 2016. Grant Management was held for Executive Board Members, Administration, Directors and key staff in March 2016. The final Family Service Center plan was submitted in the Bureau of Indian Affairs in April 2016. As part the Quality Improvement initiative Program Directors created program grant binders which were reviewed by Administrators and Finance in May 2016. This was to ensure that Programs were audit ready as well as to maintain ongoing quality grant binders.

Goals for 2016/2017: The Family Service Center will continue to implement the Family Service Center Plan with goals to hire on key positions to support development of this project. This includes hiring on Navigators to assist clients with access to services, hiring an Information Systems Administrator for further implementation of a client tracking system called Ritetrack. Ritetrack has been implemented in the TANF Department. We will also search for funding for the design of a Family Service Center building and exploration to boost existing information technology infrastructure.

Laurinda (Lauri) Weston-O’Brien accepted the position of Family Service Center Director in early 2016. Lauri is a tribal member of the Native Village of Mekoryuk. She has 20 years of experience in the Human Resources field, which a focus on Corporate Training. She also has a Bachelors and Masters Degree in Rural Development from the University of Alaska – Fairbanks. She is the Kuskokwim Campus Advisory Council Chair and a member of the UAF-College of Rural and Community Development Advisory Council. She has previously held a seat with the Bethel Advisory School Board. She is married with 3 children.

  - AVCP also plans to carry out the FY16 audit in the beginning of the second quarter (March) FY17.

Department Staff:

Finally, it is critical to give recognition to the members of the accounting team, who have all been an instrumental part of our continued efforts to improve AVCP's Financial Services Department. 2015-2016 School Readiness Goals

AVCP Head Start program school readiness goals for the year 2015-2016 were developed by the Central Office Team. We looked at the assessment scores and chose 10 areas where we are scored low in. These 10 goals will be focused on for the following school year. The School Readiness goals are aligned with the Alaska Early Learning Guidelines, Teaching Strategies Gold and the Head Start Early Learning Framework. Individual program reports as well as whole program reports are printed out for each checkpoint period: Fall, Winter and Spring.

Each site except for one site, are able to print out progress reports at the completion of each checkpoint. The one site is without internet access and have the reports mailed to them from central office. The AVCP Head Start program uses Teaching Strategies Gold online for yearlong individual assessments for each child. Individual reports are shared with parents during parent conferences and exit at the end of the program year. Suggested at home activities in hard copy form are made available for parents to work with their children in different areas of development in accordance with our school readiness goals. Program goals for school readiness are made available to parents, local LEAs and the community.

The key findings for each of our assessment checkpoints are reviewed during our administrative meetings three times a year.

Teaching Strategies Gold reports are reviewed in the Fall time, Fall and Winter scores are reviewed together and Winter and Spring time are reviewed at the end of the school year. Plans are made for training purposes for teaching staff based on the score results. The key findings are also reviewed as a whole program group during pre-service. Individual sites have received and will continue to receive one on one review of the school readiness goals.

Healthy Families

Melanie Fredericks, Director

Healthy Families – The Yup’ik Way, or Eiluariuteng Ikatellirriit initially began in June 2008 as a parenting class under ONC’s Social Services Department. The cycle was constructed by a group of 10 Yup’ik professionals with the guidance of Elders during a Regional ICWA conference in January, 2008. The Elders sat with the group to help them gain a good understanding of the Yup’ik cycle of life and how our teachings, our values and traditions are applied throughout the developmental process in order to live a healthy balanced adult life. Included were the knowledge and skills to fulfill the roles of a productive member of a community, a healthy parent, a spouse, a teacher and the skills to assume the role of eldership. Originally, Healthy Families in Bethel consisted of 9 sessions with a final 10th session dedicated to a celebration honoring the participants who attended and completed each session. An additional session was added in 2009 in an effort to integrate a session on healthy relationships into the cycle. Healthy Families presentations in villages were usually 2-5 days, depending on what the village or tribe requested. In May 2010, AVCP and ONC held a gathering of Elders in St. Mary’s to get their input and advice on strengthening the cycle. From that gathering the Elders gave their blessing and ‘finalized’ the cycle so that the teachings could continue to be shared with everyone. In reality, the Healthy Families curriculum has been used for thousands of years by the Yup’ik people. Although some may not realize this, everyone who is raised in a Yup’ik home uses it, and still use parts of it today. The Healthy Families workshop is a three and a half day process where participants are reminded that all the wisdom, knowledge, cultural practices, beliefs and values that have been passed on for generations is possessed by each person. It is a strength-based, holistic approach to begin looking at oneself, and finding strengths within each and every participant. These are strengths that maintain whole health. In finding these strengths we will overcome and avoid unhealthy habits of behavior.

Accomplishments:

From 2013 through 2015 The Healthy Families program,

- Held approximately 27 Healthy Families workshops in Bethel.
- Made approximately 695 contacts during the Healthy Families workshops from individuals throughout the Y-K Delta including the communities: Hooper Bay, Nunapitchuk, Bethel, Kongiganak, Salmon Bay, Kwethluk, St. Mary’s, Napakiak, Chevak, Tulukak, Tuntutulik, Nunam Iqua, Crooked Creek, Kotlik, Akiakchak, Napakiak, Kasigluk, Mt. Village, Kalikag, Kipnuk, Alakanuk, Quinhagak, Aniak, Pilot Station, Eek, Mekoryuk, Tununak, Lower Kalikag, Goodnews Bay, Akiak, Emmonak, Russian Mission, Chuathbaluk.

- Participants were referred by the Office of Children’s Services (OCS), the Bethel Court System, the AVCP ICWA Department, and Tribal Councils/Courts. Social service providers from the region and throughout Alaska also attended, as well as interested community/tribal members and foster parents.
- AVCP provided meals for all participants and airfare/lodging for most participants excluding those referred by the OCS.
Goals for 2016/2017:

The department has three major goals to reach over the next three years:

- To continue providing enough workshops to meet the region’s needs;
- To develop a youth track that will offer a true history of our ancestors, and an understanding of our traditional ways of life and how they continue to shape our identities as Yupik people today; and
- To implement Healthy Families as a core principal of AVCP in order to provide the best services possible to our people.

Human Resources

Deborah White, Director

The AVCP Human Resources Department’s focus is to assist all of the AVCP Programs by supporting the employee needs for the organization in a variety of directions and processes. Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA)

Sarah Jenkins, Acting Director

Mission: Build/change systems that work to provide equity and good outcomes for all children and families.

The Association of Village Council Presidents works to develop, implement, and administer a family-centered, culturally appropriate, community, and strengths-based, child and family service delivery system. This system will work to ensure that child and family safety and well-being is paramount through timely, flexible, coordinated, and accessible prevention services, early intervention services, child welfare services, community and culturally-based family support services, family reunification services, and adoption and resource family support services throughout our region.

Accomplishments in 2015/2016:

We focus on four different types of cases: OCS custody cases, OCS in-home cases, Tribal Jurisdiction custody cases, Tribal in-home cases. There is also prevention activities that our ICWA worker perform with our tribal children to keep the children busy and helps them to stay out of trouble and also prevention activities for the high risk families in the communities that we serve. Some of the activities that ICWA workers have done are board game nights, cleaning/trash picking with prizes, and for the families we have done bead work, kuspuk making nights, and fishing events.

We also provide assistance to tribes to keep the kids out of state custody- in-home services- case planning/safety planning, relative placements for emergencies, home visits and referral to culturally appropriate services – elder counseling, healthy families, and Eco therapy- using the outdoors and nature for therapy sessions. We have also provided different necessities that the families need to keep the kids out of state custody, for example cleaning supplies and other things. We also provide supervised visits for families visiting their children in State custody and provide traditional food for them.

We also have been undergoing the effort to lower the disproportionate numbers of native kids entering the state system. We have had a lot of Undoing Racism trainings, Knowing Who You Are, and leading the meetings on monthly Undoing Racism meetings.

We also have been bringing trainers to train our compacts with the new BIA guidelines, Regional Tribal/State meetings, and training our new ICWA workers on case management. We are also a part of the Tribal State Collaboration meetings for the State of Alaska, in finding ways to work with the State in bettering the Child Welfare System.

Goals for 2016/2017: The ICWA department will continue working with our compacted tribes in effectively representing the tribes in the Child In Need of Aid cases, and also focusing on other cases that the Tribes are involved in. We will continue to train our new ICWA workers on case management and to work with them to keep children safe.

We hope to continue our efforts to work collaboratively with OCS and hope to decrease the disproportionality.

We will continue to strive forward looking at our mission statement and making it reality.

The program is primarily responsible for the protection of the subsistence way of life and the resources the Yup’ik/Cup’ik and Den’e people depend on for their customary and traditional social, physical, economic and spiritual sustenance. In the more recent years, the program, by administrative direction, was involved in various endeavors to include the development of inter-tribal fisheries commissions, wildland fire protections for communities and native allotments. This was accomplished through various grants that were successfully applied and secured. We thank the organizations whom have invested their financial resources for the endeavors of the tribes in the region.

Accomplishments in 2015/2016:

- Fully developed the Kuskokwim River Inter-tribal Fisheries Commission with effective partnerships with the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service through a memorandum of understanding for the management of Kuskokwim River salmon resources. - Work with Bristol Bay Native Association, Kawerak, and the Tanana Chiefs Conference to develop a scientific sampling protocol for genetic analysis of all Chinook salmon harvested in intercept commercial fisheries in the Bering Sea and South Peninsula.

Realty

Tonya Charlie, Director

The mission of the Department of Realty is to provide services to individual restricted landowners with the highest degree of skill, care, and loyalty in regard to trust assets and resources, discharged in accordance with legal principles and standards governing the performance of trust functions. Forty-three (43) tribes presently receive trust services.

Land transactions staff provides counseling to landowners, enabling them to make informed decisions regarding their land. Transactions include gift deeds, sales (advertised or negotiated), private and commercial leases, Housing and Urban Development (HUD) leases, rights-of-way (ROW), revocable use permits (RUP), mortgages, removal of restrictions, partitions, subdivisions, gravel/sand leases, land exchanges, and rights protection.

The Probate and Estate Planning staff’s primary responsibility is to administer and manage the estates of deceased restricted landowners, which includes preparation of probate packages containing family information and legal documentation in order to determine heirs. The probate packages are forwarded to the United States Department of the Interior (DOI), Office of Hearings and Appeals (OHA) for decision determining heirs.

Accomplishments in 2015/2016: One-day Land Jurisdictional Workshop for Community Development held at a village tribal council office, attended by tribal council members and village corporation members. The Transactions team completed one (1) business lease, four (4) negotiated sales, and thirteen (13) gift deeds. The Probate team submitted thirty (30) probate packages to the Bureau of Indian Affairs for review; fifty-eight (58) probate cases opened; and fifty-four (54) probate cases were decided.

Goals for 2016/2017: Realty staff will be educated in regard to the transfer of tribal lands from Fee-to-Trust. This in anticipation of tribal interest in Assistant Secretary of the Interior for Indian Affairs, Kevin Washburn’s recent decision, which allows for the transfer of tribal lands from Fee-to-Trust in Alaska. The number of various transactions cases prepared and submitted to BIA will exceed in number by two and half times the number of cases prepared within the last year. The number of probate cases submitted to the BIA will be equal to or greater than the number of new cases assigned.

Gina R. Douville, Realty Director for over eight years, accepted a job as the Deputy Superintendent of Trust at the Cheyenne River Agency in South Dakota, and departed the Realty Department in July of 2015.

Moxie provided over thirty years of Realty service in his home town of Sleetmute, the Kuskokwim Native Association (KNA) in Aniak, AK, where he worked as Realty Officer for many years and at AVCP where he was employed as a Realty Specialist and Supervisory Realty Specialist before his promotion to Realty Director. The Department of Realty wishes to recognize Gina and Moxie for their many years of exceptional service to our clients within the Yukon-Kuskokwim Delta. We certainly miss their wealth of knowledge, expertise, and contributions to the Department of Realty.

Steven R. Street, Director of Cultural & Environmental Sciences held the role of Acting Realty Director from October 2015 until July 2016.

Transportation

Clarence Daniel, Director

AVCP entered into an agreement with the Federal Highways Administration (FHWA) for the assumption of the Tribal Transportation Program (TTP). The success of AVCP Transportation Program is dependent upon pooling and leveraging funds from the TTP with the much larger sources of funding opportunities. The Transportation Department’s purpose is to promote the economic development of villages through planning, designing, constructing and maintaining priority projects in the AVCP region.

Program Accomplishments

- Construction project scheduled to be completed in Alakanuk (TIGER Project)
- Construction projects continued and ongoing in Kongiganak and Chevak
- Construction scheduled in Oscarville and Napakiak
- Ongoing design projects in: Hooper Bay, Hamilton, Pitka’s Point, Platinum, Kipnuk, and the Ilkivik port and road.
- Updated/Updating LRTP’s and priorities
- Received 4 safety grants – 1 AWOS unit, accident/crash reporting database, ATV safety (free helmets), personal locator beacon rental (tribal level)

Goals

- Continue to update LRTP’s and priorities with Tribes as necessary
- Consistently have at least 2 construction projects per year
- Consistently design enough projects to sustain goal #2
- Proceed to deal with Transportation issues at the national level to ensure that any new regulations introduced or proposed will not adversely affect AVCP Transportation and rural Alaska in general.
- YK Corridor – investigate/pursue additional funding to complete design
- Continue to seek, investigate and develop other funding opportunities
- Continue developing trail marking project with consortium tribes with Federal Lands Access Program funds.
- Pursue excess state – aid funds through 23USC 202 (a)(9) for construction projects
- Continue working with state legislators to create State of Alaska TTP funding opportunity
- Continue to partner with Yuut Elitnaurviat to provide training/work force development
- Investigate development of core construction crew with our consortium tribes

Department Staff

- Moses Whitman, Jr., Budget Analyst
- Marvella Brink, Administrative Assistant
- 43 Construction workers in Kongiganak
- 13 Construction workers in Alakanuk
- 15 Construction workers in Chevak
FAST Act (Fixing America’s Surface Transportation) is the new transportation law out of Congress. It was passed and approved in December 2015. There are many new reporting requirements with safety, job creation, and project based reporting that tribes will have to perform.

We would like to thank all the AVCP Tribes that either joined or decided to remain in our transportation consortium. We believe with the rising cost of living that is affecting our region and the decrease of State of Alaska funding, this consortium will have the ability to leverage our funds with other funding opportunities to get our transportation projects completed in the most efficient manner. Maintaining a certain level of funds is vital to the success of the transportation department for these reasons: (1) to supplement the absence of funding sources eliminated by legislation; and (2) to have the ability to enter reimbursable agreements for additional funding sources that become available.

Out of the 8 safety applications submitted, we were awarded 4; they are for one AWOS unit, development of a safety accident/crash data reporting system, protective gear (helmets, etc.), and the purchase of personal locator beacons for our tribes to rent out to tribal members. Implementations of these grants are forthcoming.

Again thanks for your continued support with us while we continue to investigate ways to develop this department to its maximum potential.
Tribal Justice

Monique Vondall-Rieke

This year, we have worked to establish funding and begin working toward permanent funding of tribal courts in our region. This includes building relationships with federal agencies, partnering with Alaska State programs, and assessing the civil and criminal tribal court development in the villages within our region. This past year was also a year to take part in notifying federal agencies and legislation just how great the need is in our region to develop tribal courts and programs that are related to tribal courts.

Accomplishments in 2015/2016:

• Established the Tribal Justice Center as integral to the TIWAHE Initiative.
• Building a relationship with AVCP Tribal Justice Center and the Department of Interior, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Office of Justice Programs and the Tribal Justice Support Division.
• Enhance existing Tribal Courts:
• Partnership with ALSC and TWC resulted in AVCP being a sub grantee of ALSC’s OVW grant. This brought one trip to the villages of Kongiganak that involved training tribal court staff, tribal council, law enforcement and other staff in 2015. (Trip to Toksook Bay was delayed due to weather.)
• Tribal Council Curriculum on serving as tribal court was developed and delivered to Newtok Village.
• These tribes were given assistance with their tribal codes: Akiak, Alakanuk, Chefornak, Chevak, Hamilton, Hooper Bay, Kongiganak, Newtok, and Scammon Bay.
• These villages were visited: Alakanak (x2), Chevak, Kwethluk, Upper Kalskag, Lower Kalskag, ONC, Kongiganak, Emmonak, Newtok, Hooper Bay, Mekoryuk, Oscarville, Napaskiak, Russian Mission.

• Trainings: VAWA Training Feb. 2016, 14 tribes attended, 75 individuals, including non-tribal programs; Tribal Court Ethics, Roles and Responsibilities Training May 2016, 15 tribes attended, 45 individuals.
• Provided written Testimony to the U.S. Commission on Indian Affairs re: P.L. 280 $10 million Bill for Tribal Court funding sponsored by Sen. Murkowski. This resulted in the $10 million being included in President Obama’s 2016 Budget. The distribution plan includes a significant amount estimated for Alaska Tribal Courts.
• Provided letter to Tricia Tingle, Tribal Justice Support Division on suggestions for a distribution plan of the PL 280 tribal court funding.

Tribal Workforce Development

Peter Keller, Director

This is a new department that is currently in the process of selecting Job Center Sites. The objective of our project is tribal workforce development, helping the people of our region who are either TANF clients or under the age of 25 find employment and helping employers connect with these human resources. This will be achieved by opening multiple Tribal Job Centers in the region and connecting individuals with resources that they either currently can’t access or aren’t aware exist. This includes existing positions individuals may qualify for and training opportunities hosted by both the AVCP Tribal Job Centers and those available outside of their village. These can include professional development workshops, vocational training, higher education, internships, apprenticeships and access to GED programs.

We will create a job skills bank that will act as a resource for both employers and job seekers. Job seekers with skill sets will be added to our resource center where employers can seek qualified candidates for open positions. This will help fill the employment gap on both sides. These Tribal Job Centers and our Workforce Development Specialists will act as facilitators in connecting community members with these opportunities. They will also act as trainers themselves teaching job searching, offering resume assistance, organizing workshops – including ones they offer in introductory computer skills, and connect them with scholarship opportunities for training and education.
