CITY OF PILOT STATION
EMERGENCY ORDER #3
MASK MANDATE

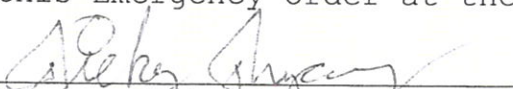

Alaska continues to have a substantial amount of COVID-19 cases, hospitals are at near capacity and due to the fact that the new variant "Omicron" has reached Alaska and the Yukon Kuskokwim Delta (YKD), and due to the fact that 45.7% of Pilot Station's population (of 604 based on 2020 census) is fully vaccinated, and the fact that the Yukon Kuskokwim Health Corporation (YKHC) has stated YKD is rated as "High Transmission" (website: <https://www.ykhc.org/covid-19/>), the City of Pilot Station, by this Emergency Order therefore Declares a facemask, face covering mandate for all people inside all public buildings within the Pilot Station City limits.

THEREFORE BE IT ENACTED BY THE PILOT STATION CITY COUNCIL ON THURSDAY JANUARY 20, 2022 AT 4:00 P.M. AS FOLLOWS:

Due to the fact that these public buildings are a place of congregation, Phase three of the COVID-19 plan is to continue mandatory mask mandate regardless whether vaccinated, not vaccinated or residency status for all people over the age of 3 years old to all businesses inside Pilot Station City limits. This includes the City of Pilot Station, Pilot Station School, Pilot Station Head Start, Pilot Station Post Office, Pilot Station Alaska Commercial Store, Pilot Station ANICA Store, the Pilot Station Traditional Village building, Pilot Station Inc. Store, Pilot Station Clinic, Pilot Station pool hall, Pilot Station Holy Transfiguration of our Lord Russian Orthodox Church and St. Charles Spinola Holy Catholic Church.

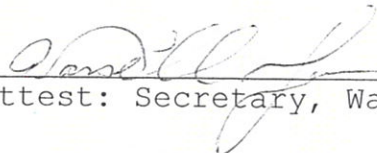

To help stop the spread of COVID-19 and to protect the health and safety of all people, the City of Pilot Station City Council strongly recommends all residents of Pilot Station to avoid all non-essential public gatherings

This Emergency Order will be revisited on March 21, 2022 at 4:00 p.m. By this Emergency Order managers and supervisors are required to enforce this Emergency Order at their place of employment.

Mayor, Nicky Myers

Attest: Secretary, Wassillie Myers
